Residents Form Defense Organization

Over one hundred citizens and taxpayers in the incorporated limits of Carmel and from the district south of Carmel were on hand at Arts and Crafts hall last Tuesday evening with the object of organizing a body having for its purpose the consideration of matters affecting the municipality, and for the further purpose of recommending to the city board of trustees appropriate legislation.

Geo. L. Wood was elected president and Mrs. Bernice O. Warren recording secretary and treasurer. It is understood the latter, who was not present at the meeting, has declined to serve. Other officers elected were: first vice president, Caroline Kimball; second vice president, Grant Wallace; third vice president, Dr. Amelia L. Gates. Provision was made for the appointment of three committees, a vigilance committee of six, an intelligence committee of four, and a membership committee of two.

The name of the organization is Carmel Citizen's Protective Association. Dues are one dollar a year.

It is the plan of the organization to have two of its members attend every meeting of the trustees.

Among the subjects discussed was the Ocean-Carpenter improvement, and a committee will wait upon the trustees next Monday night to request that consideration of the bids to do the work be deferred.

Much applause greeted the declaration that "the sooner the members of the board of trustees learn that they are servants of the people the better off they will be."

Perry Newberry called attention to the referendum election on the City Manager ordinance on October 5. He asked that there be a big vote—"Yes" or "No."

PINE INN TO BE REBUILT

John B. Jordan, proprietor of Pine Inn, has made plans for extensive improvements and additions to the property. A two story, forty-room addition will be erected on the Monte Verde street side of the present hotel building, taking in the lobby and dining room now in use.

Contractor M. J. Murphy is drawing the plans for a Spanish-California type of building, construction of which will begin early in 1926.

Mr. Jordan's plan of improvement is an evidence of his faith in the growth of Carmel and of the entire Circle of Enchantment. Many, having regard for his sagacity and far-sightedness, will follow his lead.

COUNTY FAIR TO BE HELD AT WATSONVILLE

Several of California's finest herds of prizewinning cattle will be on exhibition at the Santa Cruz County Farm Bureau Fair to be held at the Civic Auditorium, Watsonville, October 6 to 11, inclusive. They will compete for cash prizes as well as ribbon awards. Two large tents will be devoted entirely to what is expected will be one of the most comprehensive displays of fine livestock and poultry ever seen in central California.

In the main exhibit every farm center in Santa Cruz county and many in adjoining districts will have splendid arrays of the choicest products of farm and orchard. There will also be educational displays galore and interesting exhibits by many commercial and industrial enterprises.

No small degree of attention has been given to providing amusement to vary the program. Several high-class theatrical circuits have been booked for the entire five day period. A good orchestra will supply music to enliven the affair and free dancing will be provided every night except Sunday. A local theatre will operate a free continuous motion picture program in the building.

Carmel's $50,000 School Building, As It Will Appear When Completed. Finnigan & Herndon, the contractors, are making every effort to have the building ready for occupancy next January.

What Carmel Needs

(Editorial)

A BUSINESS ORGANIZATION.

The growing number of business concerns makes it necessary to have a body that can properly handle business affairs. No other organization can do it.

A GENERAL ART GALLERY.

One of the first questions asked by travelers who come here for a limited time is, "Where can I see the work of your artists?" They are referred to the various studios, search for them, often do not find them, and give it up. An up-to-date gallery, open all day, would be not only an attraction, but would give an impetus to the sale of pictures.

BETTER ATTENDANCE AT ARTISTS' PERFORMANCES.

It is not right to expect the best exemplars of music, drama, etc., to come here, and on the night of their appearance greet them with a handful of people. If we expect the best we must support them.

CO-OPERATION IN MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

There is too much quarelling and opera-boufee stuff every time a new civic problem or improvement comes up. We need more co-operation between citizens and trustees.

Trustees Are Still Transacting Business

There came near not being a meeting of the city trustees last Monday evening, owing to a misunderstanding of adjournment dates. Trustees Dennis and Larouette and City Clerk Van Brower put in appearance at 7:30, but that was not a quorum, so Marshall Englund was dispatched to the Kibbler home to get his man. He got him, and the meeting proceeded, with an unusually small "gallery."

Trustee Larouette presented some data as to the accessibility and condition of several water hydrants and was directed to have them put in good order.

President Kibbler reported that he felt assured that the new arrangement for garbage disposal would work out satisfactory.

On motion of Trustee Larouette the Commissioner of Streets was instructed to have the gutters on the business streets and the culverts throughout the city cleaned immediately.

F. C. Rockwell suggested that the Boy Scouts, with their scout master, Mr. Newton, might be induced to assist in the cleaning up of brush and debris in other parts of the city.

W. T. Dummage was appointed to act as Marshall in the absence of August Englund at a salary of five dollars a day.

The Pine Cone's bid to publish the city's official printing was accepted. The contract covers a three-year period.

Mrs. W. T. Dummage announced that she contemplated putting down on the east side of Lincoln street, south of Ocean avenue 190 feet of curbing and 18-inch gutter, also a concrete sidewalk on Ocean avenue at Lincoln. Permission was granted for the same.

The board meets again next Monday night, at which time the principal business will be the consideration of bids on the Ocean-Carpenter job.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE SITE SELECTED

The local telephone building, it has been definitely decided, will be located at the southeast corner of Dolores street and Seventh avenue.

A ten-year lease of a building to be erected by Mrs. Mary T. Dummage, was consummated yesterday morning.

The building is to be of stone tile, supplied by the Mission Building Material Company, a new peninsula concern. This will be the first structure of this exact type constructed here, and Phil Wilson, Jr., who is the local salesman, is responsible for the selection.

The area of the building, which will be one story, is 30 x 70 feet, and will face on Dolores street. It will cost about $8,000. Percy Parkes is the contractor.

LEAGUE HEADQUARTERS

The Carmel Protective League, recently formed for the purpose of a constructive consideration of Carmel's civic affairs, announces that members of a committee will keep open house at the Ralph Davison Miller studio on Camino Real, first door south of Ocean avenue, on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week. They will at that time answer questions relative to the aims and objects of the League and will receive memberships.

Coming Events

Monday, Sept. 21—City Trustees opening of Ocean-Carpenter bids.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28-29—"A Bill of Divorcement." Theatre of the Golden Bough.

Manzanita Theatre—Motion pictures every evening.

California

Domain where nature's fairest face
Reflects the charm of morning's glance,
Its rivalry of strength and grace
The mirrored soul of all romance.

Adventure's most alluring name,
The best beloved of fortune's quest,
A world frontier whose beacon flame
Lights all the highway of the west.

Its commerce throbs and culture dwells,
Its orchards bloom and cities stand,
Where yesterday the herald bells
Awaked a distant, dreaming land,

Its winnowed wealth, its treasure trove,
The ages hoards, for him who dares;
The teeming fruits of field and grove
Awaiting him who plants and cares.

The state whose buoyant life looks on
To farther fields and ocean ways
And sees beyond tomorrow's dawn
The shining sails of future days.

THE BEST IS GOOD ENOUGH

THERE used to be a song quite popular called "The Old Time Religion," and one line ran like this: "It was good enough for Paul and Silas and it's good enough for me."

That song has fine sentiment. Every word of it rings with truth and devotion. It is manifestly religious and fervent in its nature. The spirit of the song is fundamental, and therein lies its greatness.

In the application of the truth from which the song referred to was inspired, a gross misapplication of a similar principle is very often encountered in relation to community development. Many proposals of public improvements are met with the objection that "inasmuch as we have gotten along these many years without them we can continue to do without them."

There is a wide distinction between the meaning of the good-enough-for-me song on the one hand and the mentioned objection on the other. In the one case the appeal is made for adherence to divine principle, which means PROGRESS if it means anything; in the other case the objection is diametrically OPPOSED TO PROGRESS. The good-enough-for-me attitude is one that should carry little weight in the proposal to adopt the City Manager administration of affairs in Carmel.

A BROADER VIEWPOINT

BECAUSE our country is so large, we are often inclined to narrow our views regarding its various activities to the more immediate sections in which we live. Californians may think their state is a leader in road work. New Yorkers that they have the only modern buildings and Florida that it has the principal recreation resorts.

To show the narrowness of such views, consider the road question alone. The Southern states, which have been generally advertised as having bad roads, are rapidly forging to the front in the construction of new paved motor roads. Reports from the highway departments of 16 southern states show that under their direction, a total of $170,000,000 is available for new roads this year.

Including the construction work under way by counties and townships, the sums being spent in the South this year for road improvements will aggregate approximately $400,000,000. In the new construction, the mileage this year will outstrip any year heretofore.

RADIO FANS, TRY THIS OUT

ONE phase of radio reception which is generally overlooked and yet has a most important bearing on results," says Dr. Alfred N. Goldsmith, Chief Broadcast Engineer, of the Radio Corporation of America, "is the location of the loud speaker."

"It is astonishing how considerably radio music can be modified by changing the location of the loud speaker. A little experimentation along this line will generally produce worthwhile results. Especially is this true in summer, when the static background stands out boldly unless the sound volume is reduced. The loud speaker, located indoors, will give more volume but it will also focus attention on every little static background included, no matter how faint it may be.

"On the other hand, if the loud speaker is brought out on the porch or on the lawn, little details of its voice are no longer discernible and only the main theme—music or speech—remains to attract attention of listeners."

MARINE PAINTER SEEKS SECLUSION OF PINES

Though wedded to his art, Harold Knott has finally succumbed to the whispered wooing of the spirit of the woods, and will shortly move into the compact new studio in Carmel Woods which Contractor Percy Parkes is erecting for him.

Although a designer of wide and varied experience, this is Mr. Knott's first design in the I. N. C. style. It consists of studio and living quarters at present, and provision is made in the construction to permit of extension in two directions if such addition should become desirable or necessary. When properly established in his new home, we can confidently look forward to this artist producing paintings worthy of his brush. He has much scenery to draw from adjacent to his studio site.

Mr. Knott takes with him the best wishes of his friends and fellow workers.

HENRY COWELL CONCERT

By Thomas Vincent Cator

It was my pleasure and privilege to listen to a recital by Henry Cowell at Unity Hall on the evening of September 14th. Mr. Cowell is the composer of cluster-tone fame. He sees no reason why the piano should be played with the fingers alone, therefore he employs the flat of his hands, and in fact, his arms and elbows.

He is not the only one who finds such uses for the piano, as I have seen Percy Grainger swat it with a hammer. I have not seen anyone saw it in half as yet, but judging from the Carmel Burlesque, I expect Ernie Schwening to be the one to do that.

All joking aside, however, the work of Mr. Cowell is not only original but is exceedingly interesting and at times positively enchanting, as witness his Aeolian Harp, or the Banshee, or the Harp of Life. His effects in these are elemental, cosmic, and gripping.

But there is just one thing I find disenchanting about an entire program of his work, and that is a too great similarity between certain numbers. For instance, when I found myself charmed by the Harp of Life, it was annoying to me to find that the Cauldron of Fire was so similar to it in treatment. I do not wish to think of the Cauldron of Fire and the Harp of Life as so nearly alike.

Mr. Cowell is also exceedingly gifted in melodic development. This was particularly evident in his new violin suite, splendidly played by Leo Linder. But I must say I did not feel that he had as much contrast in his piano accompaniment as the violin part demanded. However, Mr. Cowell is Mr. Cowell, and he has something of real worth to give to the world of music.

Another interesting portion of the evening was the very artistic singing of Mrs. O'Sullivan, accompanied by her daughter, of San Francisco.

AUTO SALES

Paul J. Denny, local automobile dealer, has been running up a few records lately. His sales for the past ten days total six, as follows:

Lynn Hodges, Buick sedan; William Vander Roest, Buick sedan; L. E. Gottfried, Buick touring; Lillian M. Carroll, Chevrolet coupe; Anna C. Edwards, Chevrolet coach; Mabel E. Wasson, Chevrolet roadster.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

The graduation exercises of the Sunday School of the Carmel Community Church will be held tomorrow (Sunday) at ten o'clock. All parents and friends are cordially invited to be present.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING OF SONG

Louie Arend Helder, bass-baritone of Chicago, as guest of Madame Glenn-Estill, sang for a most enthusiastic audience Saturday evening, September 11th, in the new and artistic studio of Thomas Vincent Cator. Mr. Helder's singing was remarkable for the ease of production, wealth of tone and clarity of diction. The message of each number was delivered with authority, and in fine interpretative style. Oratorio, opera and ballad came with the same ease and conviction.

Mr. Helder is a student of the Barbereux School, having gone with his teacher, Madame Glenn-Estill, three years since, to Chicago. He anticipates visiting his family home at Linden, Washington, preparatory to continuing his studies. Carmel folk hope for another of his concerts next season. Mr. Helder, who is of Holland-Dutch descent, is to be commended for the fact that while studying voice he "worked his way" as a carpenter.

Professor and Mrs. F. E. Lloyd and sons left yesterday for Montreal, Canada. Dr. Lloyd is head of the botany department at McGill University. The Lloyd cottage will be occupied by Miss Isabel Logie.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The light rain of last Friday night and Saturday morning, September 11 and 12, caused the postponement of the regular semi-monthly scout hike of the Carmel Boy Scouts. The hike will be held today and Sunday, weather permitting.

The regular weekly meeting was held last Monday evening, but nothing of importance was brought up.

The present membership of the organization is eleven. William Newton is the Scout Master.

RUMMAGE SALE NEXT WEEK

A Rummage Sale will be held at the Carmel Church, Lincoln street, south of Ocean avenue. Open Monday afternoon, Sept. 21, continuing afternoons through the week. Object: to raise funds for sewer tax and other extra expenses. Cast-off clothing, shoes, hats, furniture and books, bedding, bric-a-brac—anything salable gratefully received. Please leave at Grey Gables, S. E. corner Lincoln and 7th, or notify Mrs. Thos. Douglass, and they will be called for.—Adv.

BURTON ON CITY PLANNING

Dr. Alfred E. Burton, President of the Carmel Planning Commission, was the main speaker at the Monterey Rotary Club gathering on Thursday. He gave a most interesting and instructive talk on city planning, a subject upon which he has become an authority.

In the course of his remarks, Dr. Burton stated that the principal topics for discussion at the convention of the California League of Municipalities, to be held at Long Beach this month, will be on the subjects of planning and zoning. There are 36 cities, with a combined population of over twenty-seven million people, in the United States, that are operating city commissions. Twenty-seven of the thirty-three largest cities of the United States are zoned cities. The movement of city planning in America began really about ten years ago and was given its first practical impetus by the city of New York. Its growth during the past four years has been wide-spread, until it is now indicated, says Dr. Burton, that city planning "is going to every one."

"In 1790," said Dr. Burton "a French engineer, L'Enfant, laid out the city of Washington, D. C., and Washington is the most beautiful city in America. Although his plans were temporarily abandoned at several stages of Washington's growth, every effort is now being made to return to the original plans of that remarkable city planner of the revolutionary period."

HOLD BARBECUE

Recently a well-attended barbecue, tendered to local and Oakland contractors, was given by the Mission Building Material Company. The festivities were held at the company's stone tile plant on the Carmel river, on the upper Hatton ranch.

Chano Graxiola with his assistants presided over the roast meat and other Spanish delicacies, and the guests were loud in their praise of Chano's culinary skill.

After dinner a series of races ranging from wee kiddies to fat men were held, to the great joy of the crowd. Following the races came Spanish dances by two of Chano's nieces, in costume, which brought to the minds of newcomers and oldtimers alike the lost joys of the early Spanish days.

Messrs. Marquell and Murray further borrowing from Spanish custom, insisted on the continuance of the party three days, when the last of the guests reluctantly left for their homes here and in Oakland.

Wonder if that girl who tried to swim the English channel ever helped her mother wash the dishes?

WOULD KEEP 'RED' WRITINGS OUT OF MAILS

Usage of the United States mails in distributing seditious publications will be forbidden in a bill which is to be introduced in the next Congress by Representative Clarence J. McLeod of New York, according to word received in San Francisco by State Adjutant James K. Fisk of the American Legion. Support of California congressmen is asked by the New Yorker who says that his bill is aimed at the publishers of printed articles supporting the overthrow of the Government of this country and other established governments which are circulated through the mails.

THE NEW MONASTERY

Supplementing Father R. M. Mestres' article in last week's Pine Cone concerning the Carmelite monastery being erected on a bluff south of Carmel, additional information is at hand.

The structure, which is to cost about $10,000 will be two stories, containing sixteen rooms. T. B. Reardon has the contract for the plumbing and electrical work.

When the structure is completed, about October 15, six of the Carmelite nuns from Santa Clara will occupy the building.

There seems to be some dissatisfaction with one of the blocks of Seventh avenue, recently improved. Several property owners desire that the block between San Carlos and Dolores be leveled. This to conform with building plans.

Stephen Allen Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds, who have been away on business for several weeks, returned to Carmel Thursday. With them is L. N. Legendre, advertising manager for S. A. R.'s "Bohemian." While in Portland, Ore., Mrs. Reynolds visited her mother.

MRS. F. R. DAY-PASSES

Mrs. F. R. Day, sister of Colonel Clair Foster, has passed away in Honolulu, is the word received yesterday afternoon by the Pine Cone. Colonel Foster is now in Canada. Mrs. Day had many friends here.

Carmel as a community is an entity in itself. It has individuality, personality, too—if a community can be said to possess such an attribute as personality.

And because it has personality Carmel finds itself constantly in the public prints or on the tongue of the outside world. Frequently the press, in its reporting of Carmel's social, art or community activities, fails to give the whole truth and the impression left does not square with reality.

The true Carmelite dismisses this failure at understanding with a shrug of the shoulders. He or she knows full well what Carmel gives in the way of living. Social democracy, as practiced in Carmel has a distinct meaning. It has a broad appeal. It leaves a most favorable impress upon law abiding citizens who find real value in the spiritual as well as the material side of things. Carmel follows art for art's sake, finds its recreation in the wholesome enjoyments that the outdoor so lavishly furnishes on the Monterey Peninsula, takes its social pleasures in a spirit of true and fine comradeship. A man's master of his own mind in Carmel. All good religions are voted good in the consciousness of every true Carmelite.

Individualism that runs counter to good citizenship is as unwelcome in Carmel as in any tight-bound and hard-laced New England township. A man's brain can breathe in Carmel and his spirit soar. And on every street corner and gathered at every hearth is a kind of sociability that puts the smile into the days work and living. There's only one constable in Carmel—and there's little need for him.

LA LOMA Terrace

Carmel is gradually spreading its "town limits" because more and more people are building homes in Carmel. The La Loma Section proves it.

As you come from Del Monte or Monterey along the county highway you'll run plumb into La Loma, five minutes from the business district of Carmel.

La Loma is Carmel's choicest home section. It enjoys every convenience—water, electricity, telephone service. It commands magnificent views of ocean, forests and valley. With home sites that follow the contour of the land, and adequately sized, La Loma offers now a most unusual opportunity to home-seekers. Sites are now obtainable on most convenient terms. Let us show you La Loma.

ART NOTES

LEVERHULME ART OBJECTS TO BE SOLD

Rembrandts, Gainsboroughs, Reynolds, and Turners are among the old masters that come under the hammer at the sale of the late Viscount Leverhulme's art treasures certain to attract many connoisseurs to London early in October. A Goya picture of Illo, the bull fighter, formerly the property of the Earl of Carendon, and several pictures by modern artists, notably the Orpen portrait of Lady Rock Savage, are in the collection.

There are also a lot of furniture of the Chippendale, Sheraton and Hepplewhite varieties, Oriental porcelain, Italian bronzes, old English silver and about 200 pieces of needlework in the form of tapestries and screens done by women of the Stuart and Georgian times to be dispersed. What is believed to be George Cruikshank's first sketch book filled from end to end with rough pencil sketches is also among the objects to be sold.

The Leverhulme sale is expected to last from two to three weeks.

WOMEN ARTISTS MEET

The newly organized San Francisco Society of Women Artists held their first meeting for this season at the Century Club, at which time Professor Eugene Neuhaus gave a talk on the Walker collection of paintings now at the Palace of the Legion of Honor galleries.

The program committee, with Miss Eleanor Trent as chairman, arranged an interesting outline for the coming meetings with half-hour talks, first: (1) Points and Etchings; (2) Modern Design and Color Harmony; (3) Composition; (4) Modern Painting; (5) Modern Sculpture.

It is the belief of the new society, now having a membership of over 300 enthusiastic women, that San Francisco will take greater interest in her women artists, and that the artists will receive new stimulus in all things artistic, both actively and as associates. Women interested in joining will receive information by applying to the secretary, Miss Amy D. Flemming, 2400 Pacific Avenue, San Francisco.

QUARTER CENTURY DEVELOPMENT

The Moscow exhibition of paintings by the Blue Rose masters arranged by the Moscow Trotskyeff gallery is not a revival of the exhibition held under the same title at Moscow in 1907, as it contains also the works produced since the revolution.

At the time when the Blue Rose association was founded it was intended as a protest against the salon aestheticism of the time. The present exhibition shows the development of Russian painting during the last quarter of a century.

FRENCHMEN DISCOVER PRE-HISTORIC DRAWINGS

Several fine prehistoric drawings have been found by the Abbe Breuil and M. Vidal, a chemist at Montpellier, in the Bedeilhac cave, near Tarascon (Ariege). Among them is a large red-and-white drawing of a horse and some beautiful drawings of bison in a good state of preservation. Some bones of animals have also been discovered. The cave is to be systematically explored.

ART COLLECTION FOR KANSAS

Several southern California and one northern California institution are said to be much disappointed in the will of Mrs. Sallie C. Thayer, well-known San Diego art collector. She bequeathed to the University of Kansas what is said to be one of the finest collections of Japanese prints, Oriental art and modern canvases. It was hoped the collection would remain in California. Well, Kansas needs something besides cyclones and mortgages.

MILTON BUST FOUND

The missing bust of John Milton, long sought by experts, has been found in a London junk shop. It is the work of Noubilac, eighteenth century sculptor. Worth thousands of dollars, it was purchased for $2. With a terra cotta bust by Rysbrack, the Milton bust attracted the attention of the eventual purchaser, who bought both. The genuineness of the Milton bust was attested at the British museum.

Health and Home

PROPER FOOD FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The age during which children are attending school may aptly be called "The Dangerous Age." It is the period of rapid growth and every care should be taken to insure the child of a normal and healthy body. The idea of eating only fit and wholesome foods should be early impressed on the younger members of every family in order to protect them against later ill health and its accompanying unhappiness. If the utmost care is not taken in the diet that is used by children, cases of food poisoning, indigestion and kindred ailments may result.

And milk, being the chief item in the diets of most children, should be carefully guarded. It is, because of its nature, prone to infection if exposed to germs and may soon become unfit for use. Wherever there is the slightest reason for doubt as to its purity and food value, steps should be taken to insure the sterility and the fitness of milk intended for consumption by children. Many mothers have adopted the excellent practice of using milk that is absolutely pure and sterile and free from any germs or bacteria. The most satisfactory, as well as the safest milk used in preparing food for the growing child is evaporated milk.

It is sterile, and therefore safe. It is more digestible than market milk. Its uniformity, convenience and cost are qualities that recommend it.

The following dishes are well suited to the needs of the growing child; they are easily digested and very nourishing:

Caramel Custard.

1 cup evaporated milk diluted with	¼ cup sugar (caramelized)
1 cup water	2 tbsp. sugar
3 eggs	¼ tsp. salt
	½ tsp. vanilla

Scald the diluted milk. Caramelize the sugar and add to milk to dissolve. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt, and flavoring and combine with scalded milk. Pour into custard cups and set in a pan of hot water and cook in a moderate oven. When done, a knife blade run in the center will come out clean.

Fish Chowder.

1 pint raw fish cut in 1-inch dice	3 cups boiling water
6 small potatoes, sliced	1 cup evaporated milk diluted with
2 onions chopped fine	1 cup water
¼ pound fat salt pork, sliced	6 crackers

Fry out the salt pork. When brown, remove pieces of pork and put fish, potatoes, and onions in kettle. Cover with boiling water. Simmer until potatoes are tender. Add the milk and cook 5 minutes longer. Season with salt and pepper. Just before serving add the crackers.

USELESS TREE REMOVAL

In the last few days there has come to the writer's attention, three cases of proposed tree removal.

The eucalyptus near the gate to the drive; the tree opposite Seven Arts building on Lincoln street; the tree at the corner of the Carmel Postoffice property.

In any of the three cases the sacrifice is unnecessary. The mulishness of certain town officials on this subject is, to say the least, exceedingly disgusting.

I understand that trees on the newly "paved" or graded streets were cut down which were neither diseased nor an annoyance to anyone.

I remember a remark by the contractor who has a monopoly on street work of Carmel that "I am here to do street work; I know nothing of beauty." May the Carmel Protective League step in and save these trees?

T. W. MORGAN, JR.

In the old days it was poor policy to lock the barn after the horse is stolen, but now the economic welfare of a lot of people would be considerably enhanced if they accidentally left their garages unlocked.

HASH

In which may be found most anything or nothing; sometimes to your taste—sometimes not. Concocted and served by IRRESPONSIBLE AL

Foiled! We can't make any wise-cracks about the rubbish lying in the gutters on the business streets of our fair city. Board of trustees slipped one over on us by ordering them cleaned.

Bill Overstreet claims we stopped too soon in our Rooster Ordinance last week. Says it should also include jazz saxaphones. I dunno.

Dear me! these loaves of bread get smaller and smaller. Monterey paper tells of the arrest of an alleged insane man who was found roaming the streets of that city "with the pockets of his coat crammed full of loaves of bread."

Our laundryman does enough damage as it is, without newspapers calling his attention to the fact that a certain spring in Paradise Valley possesses the peculiar qualities of being able to dissolve blankets placed therein to be washed. We think this sort of news should be suppressed. Laundrymen will be falling all over each other in an attempt to get exclusive rights to the use of water from that spring.

How come the city fathers are so anxious all of a sudden to give back to former owners property taken for non payment of special assessment some years ago? Is it a tardy sense of justice? Maybe it will ease their consciences.

Must be something different in the makeup of Carmelites; we don't know of any other town where this could happen. A large dog parked himself at full length in the Main Entrance to the postoffice the other day. Dozens of people walked around or stepped over him and not one, during the time we watched this unusual proceeding, told him to move on. And Gus didn't give him a ticket for overtime parking. At this rate the Humane Society will have to close shop.

All ye who have been wont to term Carmel a "dead" place, hearken! There be excitement at hand! It has been necessary—or thought so by some at least—to form a Carmel Protective League. And, though it is not admitted in so many words, they band together for the purpose of protecting themselves against the ravages of the Terrible High-handed City Fathers.

The principle is right. One hundred voices make more noise than one. One hundred pairs of hands make light work of what would be a burden for one. All well and good—if they work WITH the city's officials, not waiting until the time when they must work AGAINST them to obtain what they want or should have. But, think we, the name is an unhappy choice. It hints of cliques, of factionalism. It denotes an internal disturbance that should not be. No, the name does not suggest citizens working harmoniously with town officials.

We do not believe our city trustees are such a thoroughly bad lot. We believe they have done, and will do, what they think is right, as they see the situation. If they do not get the taxpayers' viewpoint, whose fault is it? Surely not the board of trustees. They are there to do our bidding—but how shall they know what is wanted unless we tell them? Alas, mind-reading is not one of their accomplishments.

We hope two things will come to pass. First: That if the League's demands are right—for the benefit of a majority, not to advance the political ambitions of any person or group—it will succeed and prosper accordingly. Secondly: After it has gained or lost its points in the present issues, the name be changed to "Carmel Welfare League" and the organization be used for the purpose the name would indicate.

Giving Belgium 62 years in which to pay her debts is a cruel precedent for retail merchants of this country to contend with.

"What's The Price" Is Answered

How easy to criticise the present Board of Trustees, and forget your own past record.

Please tell the tax-payer about the little stunt that was pulled off on the second assessment on Ocean avenue. You were on the Board of Trustees at the time. You did not sob when the people on Dolores street paid twice for publishing, on account of a mistake. You did not worry much when you asked the present board for the use of the city's team and men for TWO days, and used them a WEEK and hollered for more, at an expense to the tax-payer of $100 or more.

I could go on and on; but what's the use? You seem to have a mania, to have the spot-light thrown in your face. Don't you realize that the light which you have basked in for some time back is fading out!

Take my advice, take your brown papers and your BULL and do as the bear does—hibernate; the town will move on just as well.

H. P. LAROUETTE.

THE LOVED OF THE GODS

Fortunate City Planning Commission! It has only to suggest street improvement "for some time in the future"—and lo, its suggestion becomes accomplished fact as soon as arrangements can be made; while a group of property owners north of Ocean Avenue, on Lincoln street, spend a year working among themselves to perfect plans for a bettered road in front of their homes for which they offered to pay, and the gods said No. Oh happy C. P. C.! And see how happy they can make others. Think of the joy when it suggests—"for some time in the future"—the paving of Carpenter street on to its southern limits—or Mountain View avenue perhaps.

Verify those owners of property just over the eastern line of the city boundary will carry said C. P. C. on their shoulders as the way is traversed to and fro, costless to the outside owners while others wear the nine-year ball and chain of self-denial to pay for what they may never use.

H-m, h-m, with slight continued nodding of the head and a thoughtful finger on the side of the nose. New tracts being opened, did someone say? H-m, h-m.

Those loving gods.

Order of Elks and School Children to Combine to Save "Old Ironsides"

The inspiring patriotic and educational lesson interwoven in the deeds and adventures of "Old Ironsides" and the early traditions of our American Navy will be brought to twenty million school children in this nation during "Old Ironsides Week," October 19-24, by the 1400 lodges of Elks. This is the indication from the early returns of the survey of the school situation of America that has been going on for over a month in the different lodges throughout the country.

Everywhere the movement has been received with great enthusiasm, and to the National Headquarters at the Boston Navy Yard thousands of letters have poured in characterizing the work as the most practical patriotic service that the Elks have been asked to do. The scope of the activity is more far-reaching than any national movement among the school children. The slogan of the campaign is—"An Elk in Every School Will Save 'Old Ironsides'." The 1400 lodges are striving to make this slogan a reality, for the "Old Ironsides" committee of each lodge are planned on this basis, and there will be an Elk assigned to every school within the jurisdiction of each lodge.

The campaign received another big impetus at the Grand Lodge session at Portland, Oregon, which enthusiastically passed resolutions endorsing the movement and calling upon the lodges to do their utmost in this patriotic call. It was the keynote of the Grand Lodge session, and thousands of delegates and members of the order went back to their home lodges resolved that they would put over the campaign in a 100 per cent way.

Commander Marion Eppley, U. S. N. R., a member of Newport Lodge No. 104, has donated to the "Save Old Ironsides" fund the sum of $2500 to be used for the purchase of medals to be presented to the school children within the jurisdiction of each lodge for the best 500-word essay on the United States frigate "Constitution" and the early traditions of the American Navy. The medals will be distributed as follows:

One bronze medal for each lodge jurisdiction, the obverse of which reads "For Excellence in Navy History," and carries other lettering descriptive of the restoration of the frigate "Constitution," for presentation through the lodge to the child in an elementary school writing the best 500-word essay. One gold medal to be awarded to the child writing the best essay of those produced by the children of all the elementary schools in the country.

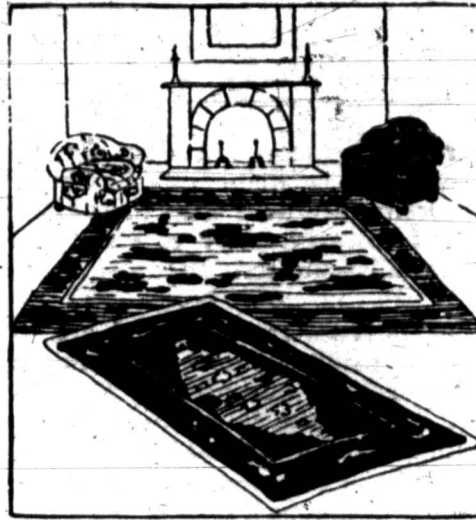

One silver medal for the best essay written by a high-school student in each state.

One gold medal for the best essay written by a high-school student in the nation.

The "Old Ironsides" Committee in each lodge will determine the winner of the elementary school medal within the lodge jurisdiction. The principal of each elementary school will be asked to select the best essay in the school and forward it to the lodge in his district, and the "Old Ironsides" committee, with some school authority, will make the selection of the winner. The presentation of the medal will be made at the patriotic exercises during "Old Ironsides Week," and the winner will read the essay. In every school the best essay of that school will be read during the exercises.

The committee of the Monterey lodge, having jurisdiction in Carmel, Monterey and Pacific Grove, is as follows: Dio L. Dawson, Chairman; A. C. Jochmus, Sheldon L. Gilmer, Roy W. Frisbee, John H. Graves, Phil S. Rose, W. L. Overstreet, Arthur G. Winston, J. P. Pryor, Wm. T. Kibbler, Edward J. Burns, James P. Evans.

Mrs. Josephine Rand Rogers returned to her home in San Jose in time to attend the wedding of Lois Wilbur, youngest daughter of President and Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford University.
